THE STORY OF THE ROUND Generated from the authoritative scorecard, competitions, settlement and recorded round context.

Old Guard had the better ball-striking day and it bought them nothing. They posted 327 gross to the Young Guns' 336 and took two of the four lowest scores in the field, but the featured game was best-two net, and best-two net rewards the side with players who can go low on the same hole.

Phil Bounsall's net 2 at the fourth — 450 yards, stroke index 7 — was the Old Guard's high-water mark. It swung the hole by 5, and by the sixth the match was square again. That was the last time it was level.

At the ninth — 453 yards, the third-hardest hole on the card — Michael Bounsall and Cam Durm both signed for net 3 against an Old Guard best two of 9. Three shots on one hole, at the turn. Young Guns went 2 up and were never caught.

The back nine repeated the pattern rather than reversing it: Cam Durm's net 1 at the eleventh, Lane Erickson's net 2 at the twelfth and Michael Bounsall's net 2 at the fourteenth. Young Guns carried it by 3.

The greenies were a separate game and they did pay: $7 a hole, two to the Old Guard and two to the Young Guns. Brian Warner took two of them, and they are the only reason he lost $3 on the day instead of $19. Across two games the Young Guns collected $60, settled in five payments.
