THE STORY OF THE ROUND

Generated from the authoritative scorecard, competitions, settlement and recorded round context.

Old Guard had the lower combined gross total. They posted 327 gross to the Young Guns' 336 and took two of the four lowest scores in the field, but the featured game was best-two net, and best-two net rewards the side with players who can go low on the same hole.

Phil Bounsall's net 2 at the fourth — 450 yards, stroke index 7 — was the Old Guard's high-water mark. It swung the hole by 5, and by the sixth the match was square again. That was the last time it was level.

At the seventh — 544 yards, the fifteenth-hardest hole on the card — Michael Bounsall and Cam Durm both signed for net 4 against an Old Guard best two of 9. One shots on one hole. Young Guns went 1 up and were never caught.

The back nine repeated the pattern rather than reversing it: Cam Durm's net 1 at the eleventh, Lane Erickson's net 2 at the twelfth and Michael Bounsall's net 2 at the fourteenth. Young Guns carried it by 3.

The greenies were a separate game and they did pay: $7 a hole, two to the Old Guard and two to the Young Guns. Brian Warner took two of them, and they are the only reason he lost $3 on the day instead of $19. Across two games the Young Guns collected $60, settled in five payments.
